 Johannes Faber: Trumpete, Flugelhorn
 Bruno Castellucci: Drums
 Erwin Schmidt: Piano
 Uli Langthaler: Bass

Seumur hidupnya sebagai pemusik, Heinz von Hermann, telah melanglang dunia mempertunjukkan kemahirannya memainkan tidak hanya tenor, soprano dan baritone saxophone, tetapi juga flute, altoflute, dan bamboo flute. Berdasarkan pengalamannya berkeciling dunia tersebutlah ia bertemu para musisi yang akhirnya bergabung ke dalam Heinz von Hermann Jazz Ahead Quintet. Rasa keakraban bermain, dan banyolan dari tiap individu kelompok band yang terdiri dari pemain kawakan Eropa di bidang saxophone & flute, piano, trumpet, drum dan bass ini menyuguhkan sebuah nuansa jazz tersendiri.

During his life as a musician Heinz von Hermann has toured the world playing not only tenor, soprano and baritone saxophone but also flute, alto flute and bamboo flute. It was through mentioned tour that he met the musicians whom later joined him in forming the Heinz von Hermann Jazz Ahead Quintet. The togetherness in playing music and the humor expressed by each individual in the band consisting of established players from Europe of saxophone & flute, piano, trumpet, drum and bass present jazz music with nuance of its own.

The musicians started directly to Jakarta in Indonesia, where they played at the Kesian Gedung Festival and at the legendary Jazz Club JAMZ. At the Shangri La Hotel in the Jazz Club Basement the audience was as enthusiastic as at the festival.

From Jakarta the band flew over to Kuala

Lumpur where the musicians played 3 concerts at the wonderful hotel Carcosa Seri Negara. All Embassies were invited from the Austrian Embassy and as well the Major of the City. A charity workshop at the College of Music of the City was the end of this trip to one of Asia's most wonderful Cities. The band flew over to the island of Langkawi where again concerts in the beautiful Hotel Andaman, where the manager is an Austrian, where played in front of nearly most of all inhabitants of this island. Singapore followed as a totally different event. The JazzAhead Quintet jammed at the most famous Jazz club "Harry's" downtown and a concert in the Art Council in the MTA building and again a charity workshop with the youth of Singapore. A lunch concert in the Creative Technical Centre was the end before the band had some time to make a wonderful sight seeing tour which was arranged by a drummer and friend of the band Frank Wong. The last stop on this monster tour was Hanoi. There was again a charity workshop in the conservatory. The youth of this nice country were amazed about the quality the 5 European musicians were presenting to them. The first EU Jazz Festival was given in the old beautiful concert hall of the conservatory of Hanoi . The Austrian Embassy was again helpful with all organisations of the arrangements the band had needs off. As well it was possible to jam at the only Vietnamese Jazz club in Hanoi, the "Minh's Jazzclub".

Special thanks for helpings and sponsoring for this tour to: the Austrian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Austrian Embassies of Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam, Dr. Segalla, Mag.
